

CONNECTICUT STUDENT LOAN FOUNDATION

By posting publicly the following written disclosure, the Connecticut Student Loan Foundation (CSLF) intends that market participants may rely on it for purposes of the independent registered municipal advisor exemption to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Municipal Advisor Rule (Rule 15Ba1-1(d)(3)(vi)).

Connecticut Student Loan Foundation

The Connecticut Student Loan Foundation (CSLF) has retained Hilltop Securities, Inc. as its financial advisor, registered as a municipal advisor under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), to provide advice in connection with the management of CSLF's loan and debt portfolios through March 31, 2025. CSLF's primary contact at Hilltop Securities, Inc. is Tim Webb.

CSLF will seek and consider the advice of its municipal advisor on information and proposals provided by broker dealers / underwriting firms, as it deems appropriate, in connection with decisions concerning the management of CSLF's loan and debt portfolios.

This statement does not negate any obligations that broker dealer / underwriting firms may have to CSLF under federal and state securities statutes and regulations (for example, Rule G-17 of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board) as well as state procurement statutes and applicable common law, nor in any way should it be construed that CSLF is waiving any rights or privileges it might otherwise have.
